

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

We will send the JOURNAL and the HOME AND FARM one year for $1.25.

How about last Monday for weather?

Mrs. M. F. Hester is confined to her room with the grip.

Charles E. Robinson is confined to his room with the grip.

Railroad news is encouraging and work will begin soon.

V. M. Morris has been confined for the past week to the house with the grippe.

Hon. J. E. Boggs has been commissioned Notary Public by Governor Tillman.

Mr. L. Smith, of Liberty Township, visited his brother, Barnett Smith, near town Monday.

A drove of fine mules, belonging to R. G. Gaines & Brother, passed through town Wednesday for Central.

Vm. Hunter, jr. of Central Township, is visiting in Atlanta and may locate in business in the big city.

Miss Annie Boone, of Gainesville, Ga., is spending some time with Misses Ola and Aurie Holmsworth.

A comical combination white horse was sold on the block, in our town last week for the munificent sum of ten dollars.

Misses Mattie and Junie Wyatt, Brushy Creek, Anderson county, visited at ex-sheriff Richey's last Saturday and Sunday.

A good many McIntoshes were played on our streets last week, thing like wet weather to bring forth good overcoats and nice umbrellas.

Master George Cureton, Pickens' ancient newsboy, having a desire to learn the "art preservative of arts," is now sticking type on the Sentinel.

Attention is called to the change T. D. Harrie's advertisement in this issue. Read it and give him all. He has a carload of choice iron which he is selling cheap.

Mrs. W. W. White, who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. Thornley, returned to her home in Anderson last week. Perry Thornley accompanied her and stayed there a few days.

Mrs. D. J. Carter, who visited her parents at Pickens the past week has returned, accompanied by her sister, Miss Maud Ashmore, who will spend some time at this place.—Forest City (N.C.) Ledger.

Warren Turner, William Turner and Henry Banks were committed to jail on the 18th instant by Trial Justice Stewart for trespass after notice. Each is sentenced to a term of fifteen days.

Deputy Marshal's Roark, King and Thornley made a raid on an eighty gallon distillery on big Eastates on the 9th instant and completely demolished the outfit. J. L. McLean and Joe Chapman were arrested and will answer this week before Commissioner Thornley.

Thomas Hunter, of Central Township, who was hurt in a runaway accident about one year ago, was treated by Dr. Leo in Greenville last week and completely healed. Mr. Hunter's neck was stiff and he could not turn his head, but he can move it now as well as he ever could and thinks he owes a permanent one.

Samuel Jameson colored, was shot by William Ferguson colored, through the abdomen and will hardly survive the wound. The shooting occurred on the 18th instant at the residence of Pink Blasingame colored, in Easley Township, where a dance was merrily progressing. Ferguson is in charge of Sheriff McDaniel at the county jail.

J. Addison Boggs, of Liberty, died at his home on the 10th instant, after a lingering illness of several months. Mr. Boggs was a consistent and useful member of the Presbyterian church. He was a patriotic and liberal citizen and his death will be a serious loss to his country and church. He leaves a large family and many relatives and friends to mourn his death.

CHIPS WITH THE BARK ON.

Girls, avoid escapades.

Don't tell palpable lies.

Be candid, not hypocritical.

There are honest lawyers.

Always boom your own town.

Speak gently in the sanctum.

Courtesy conquers prejudice.

Politics will howl in the spring.

Greatness is generally goodness.

Stop whining about hard times.

Debts make honest men miserable.

Necessity makes and also breaks men.

It is rare, indeed, that the pun is fun.

Every life is largely hope and regret.

It takes money to make a big fortune.

Anger is the poorest argument on earth.

The girl who kicks high is apt to fall low.

If a footpad hold you up shoot him down.

Do your best and the Lord will do the rest.

It rains on the just as well as on the pious.

Money is the root of nearly every great enterprise.

Time is like money in the average daily. It flies.

If you don't see the newspaper you want, start one.

Rakes, male and female, are complete mistakes.

When you joke allow a listener to lead the laughter.

When a man asks a favor he is, to a certain extent, a beggar.

Don't keep your smiles for friends and your frowns for your home.

A man must try before he can find out how big a failure he may be.

Firmness in a man commands respect, in a mule, kicks and castigation.

Politeness is a passport that generally gets everywhere without friction.

The printer has a warm place in his heart for the man who writes a good hand.

The new year is yet young, but certain pledges are in very ragged condition.

When debt winds around a man it is sometimes worse than the embrace of a serpent.

System gets there with both feet while slipshod methods fail to make connections.

It is better to be an egotist out of the mud than a man with ability down in the dirt.

Parents who neglect to teach their young ones good manners neglect a very important duty.

Heroes are getting mighty scarce and the few on deck are not up to the historic and romantic standard.

It is a very good plan when a man reads to reflect here and there. It gives him a greater cinch on the subject.

Too many men who can't write, think they can and that is why there is so much literary and journalistic misery.

Men pay for eating, pay for drink, pay when they cut a caper; yes, pay for everything on earth, except their county paper.

If you can't give a mendicant money do not offer him advice. Respect his follies if you cannot relieve his necessities.

You may depend on it that the man who sees little or no good in anybody else has little that is desirable in his own composition.

There is too much acrimony in the world. Remember that kindness, like charity, covers a multitude of sins, and mitigates a multitude of sorrows.

It is singular so many fail to appreciate the fact that talking requires much more exertion than listening or ruminating. There is too much talk.

There is a fortune for every man if he just goes about it in the proper manner. Just what that proper manner is, is the point for each man to settle and seize upon.

Girls, look as fine as you can. You, like flowers and other beauties, are made to adorn and cheer the earth, which, without you, would, indeed, be a vale of tears.

A drink of good whiskey in moderation warms up the heart, and does not hurt the soul. Liquor is well enough so long as you accept it as a servant, but it is destructive when you permit it to become the master.

It has been said "Marry in haste and repent at leisure," but it should be, marry at your leisure or in haste and never repent, but always exult that you married when you did and the woman you did. Assume to be happy even though you are like a man on the gallows with the rope round his neck. Have too much fortitude and pride to confess your failings before the world.

Where is Winter? It seems that fall is still in her lap.

See ad., of Carpenter Bro's., Mansion House druggists, Greenville, S. C., and give them a call when you want new and reliable garden seed.

Capt. James H. Rowland, of Central, Pickens county, was in Wall-halla on Tuesday morning. He is now the popular railroad hotel man at that place.—Keowee Courier.

Messrs. F. W. Poe & Co., have some fine bargains in clothing and shoes, and they tell the JOURNAL's many readers about them in this issue. Read their add. and profit thereby.

Hagood Bruce & Co., will have something of importance to say to the trade next week. Look out for their add. In the meantime parties indebted to them are earnestly requested to come forward at once and make settlement, they need money.

The County alliance met in town on the 16th instant, and had a good attendance of delegates. The alliance engaged in matters only pertaining to the order and gave politics a wide berth. The order in this county is in fine shape and is gaining ground among the farmers.

The Trustees of Glassy Mountain School District have ordered an election to be held on the 17th of February, next, for the purpose of voting on the question of levying a two mill tax on said school district. They will also on that day lot to the lowest bidder the building of a school house. S. H. Brown, J. M. Hayes, D. Hendricks, Trustees.

I have received the Readers and Histories to be sold at introductory and exchange prices. Will have the other books in a few days. J. B. NEWBERRY.

Owing to other arrangements I will remain in Pickens a short time and ask all who need work in my line to call on me as soon as convenient. L. P. ORR. Jan. 4, 1894.

Just received a drove of excellent MULES, which we are selling cheap for cash or good paper. Come on and get what you want before they are all sold. R. G. GAINES & BRO., jan18at. Central, S. C.

There will be a meeting of the Glassy Mountain alliance on the 27th of January, 1894, at 2 o'clock p.m. The speaking will be public let all come. JOEL H. MILLER, County Lecturer.

Rices' Alliance will meet at the regular place of meeting Saturday, the 27th of January, 1894, at 3 o'clock p.m. All the brethren are requested to be present. W. T. O'DELL, President.

"House furnishing goods" is a very comprehensive term, yet it fails to convey a clear idea of the vast assortment of all we keep both useful and ornamental, that is required in furnishing Parlor, Dining-room, or Kitchen. GILREATH-DURHAM COMPANY, Greenville, S. C.

Raisins, Mixed Nuts, Candy, &c., cheap, at LEWIS & SONS.

Nice lot of Oranges, just arrived at LEWIS & SONS.

Your Future Prospects

may look bright enough to-day, but what guarantee have you that they will be the same a few years hence? How do you know but that you will be incapacitated or deprived of your present income by an unforeseen calamity? Ask these same questions of a policy holder in the

and see how quick he will answer that he is protected against misfortune; that he is assured of comfort in his old age; that his family is provided for after his death. This is worthy of close investigation. For particulars address W. J. RODDEY, Manager, Department of the Carolinas, ROCK HILL, S. C.

I have a fine line of Chewing and Smoking TOBACCO,

CIGARS, the best 5 cent Cigarette, and the old Columbia Cheroot—is the best in town, five for 10 cents. I carry a nice line of fresh fancy

Groceries,

Fresh SODA CRACKERS all the time, and the best CACKED OYSTERS you have ever seen. Come and see them. Will not be undersold.

Just received a lot of TIN-WARE—will sell them cheap.

Have plenty of POWDER, SHOT, CAPS and SHIRTS, for the boys. Dynamite Fuse and Blasting Powder to blow the rock out of the wells.

Also, receiving a lot of heavy DRY GOODS, such as Checks, Shirting, Sheetings and Drilling. A good lot of Jean Checks.

See my FLOUR and get prices before you buy.

McFALL'S

BUDGET

Phun & Phax

FOR THE PHOLKS.

MR. EDITOR:

In starting the machine on a New Years run, we find that it needs more grease. You may say to the Pholks that if they want to dance again this year they must pay the fiddler or dance to the rattle of dry bones

It's a matter of choice with them and a matter of business with us. The man who sold us, wants sugar in his new sugar tea ly we must have some sugar in our'n.

You might throw out a gentle hint to those who have not done so to come right on and come right now.

EVERYTHING GOES!

The Partnership existing between Park & Jones will expire the 1st day of March, 1894, and they intend to turn everything into money by that time.

$20,000

Worth of Dry Goods and Shoes to be sold at and below cost. As we have only been in business for three years we have no old stuff to run off, buy a nice clean stock of goods will be offered to you for less than you can buy them at wholesale.

Those who have read our advertisement in the past know that we do exactly what we say.

We feel very grateful to our friends for the kindness they have shown us during our business career and trust that they will not lose this opportunity of doing both themselves and us good, in this short length of time.

All persons indebted to the firm will please settle as early as possible. No goods will be charged from this date. No goods sent out on approval.

Everything in the house has been re-marked in plain Red Figures, so there will be no confusion in selling. Then that Red Ink means that not one cent more nor less will be taken for them.

Very truly,
Park & Jones.
